Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time — YEAR A

4th October 2026

Living in Australia, we are surrounded by vineyards, especially when we travel through places like the Barossa Valley, Hunter Valley, or the Yarra Valley. Vineyards remind us of hard work, patience, and the importance of caring for what has been entrusted to us.

In today's Gospel, Jesus uses the image of a vineyard to speak about God's relationship with His people. The landowner carefully prepares the vineyard, builds a fence, digs a winepress, and then entrusts it to tenants.

The vineyard represents God's people, and the tenants are those who have been entrusted with caring for it. But when the owner sends his servants to collect the harvest, the tenants reject them and even kill them. Finally, the owner sends his son, but they kill him as well.

Jesus is reminding us that everything we have is ultimately a gift from God. Our lives, our families, our faith, our abilities, and even the opportunities we have been given are not simply ours to possess. They have been entrusted to us.

The important question is: What are we doing with what God has entrusted to us?

Sometimes we can become like the tenants in the Gospel. We can act as though our lives belong completely to us and forget that God is the owner.

The good news is that God continues to send us opportunities to return to Him. He patiently calls us back.

Today, let us ask ourselves: Am I producing good fruit for God? May our lives become a vineyard where love, kindness, forgiveness, generosity, and faith can grow.

100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This week, you are invited to partner with Catholic Mission and the Church in Malawi as we support families rebuilding after devastating floods and help children access education close to home.

Through projects like St Peter's Nyamikuta Primary School, the Church is creating a place where children can learn, be nourished, and grow with dignity, regardless of their background or beliefs.

As we celebrate 100 years of World Mission Day, we are reminded by Pope Leo XIV that we are 'One in Christ, United in Mission'.

Join with us in celebration and action by supporting this work with a compassionate gift. Use the provided appeal envelope, scan the QR code, or visit catholicmission.org.au/united to make a difference today.

Sick List

We are currently reviewing the list of the names on the weekly PowerPoint. At present, these names remain on the PowerPoint for a period of 3 months and are then transferred to the Newsletter.

From this week, the current list of names will be removed off the PowerPoint and transferred to the Newsletter.

If your loved ones are on the Sick List and do not need to be on it anymore, please contact the Parish Office so we can remove their names.

Moving forward, the names on the Sick List will no longer be on the PowerPoint indefinitely, they will only be there for a period of no more than 3 months. The names will then be transferred to the Newsletter and will then be reviewed and updated quarterly.

Children's Mass

Please register your attendance and availability to participate in the Mass by scanning the QR Code in the Newsletter or on the Poster located on the Hospitality Desk.
